

Intermittent Condition(s) Medical Impairment Assessment

| Veteran  |   |                   | U               | IN               |
|--|---|-------------------|-----------------|------------------|
|  |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Please assess the  | following condition(s):   |                   |                 |                  |
| to this conditio   | lifferent types of episodes  n. If there is a significant p  as a separate type of attacl | rodrome or prolon | •               |                  |
|  | Type of Episode   |                   |                 |                  |
| Episode Type 1   |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Episode Type 2   |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Episode Type 3   | Episode Type 3  |                   |                 |                  |
| 2. How many day                                       | s per year does the vetera  | n experience each | type of episode | e or attack?     |
|  |   | Episode type 1    | Episode type    | 2 Episode type 3 |
| Number of days.  |   |                   |                 |                  |
| 3. Please select th  | ie best description of the s   | symptoms present  | during an episo | ode or attack.   |
| Symptom description  |   | Episode type 1    | Episode type    | 2 Episode type 3 |
| No symptoms.   |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Minor symptoms that are easily tolerated.                    |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Mild to moderate symptoms that are irritating or unpleasant. |   |                   |                 |                  |
| More severe symptoms that are distressing.                   |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Symptoms are overwhelming.                                   |   |                   |                 |                  |
| Unconscious or delirious.                                    |   |                   |                 |                  |

|  | nent   | Episode type 1      | Episode type 2     | Episode type 3                 |
|--|--|---------------------|--------------------|--------------------------------|
| No interference.   |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Loss of efficiency in some activities.   |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Few every day activities are prevented. Loss of efficiency is discernible elsewhere.                         |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Loss of efficiency is discernible in many everyday activities. Bed rest is often necessary during an attack. |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Major restrictions in many everyday activities.  |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Most every day activities are prevented.   |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Total incapacity.  |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Lasting up to and including five minutes.  |  |                     |                    |                                |
|  | o the degree describe pacitated to this degr |                     | lude a prodrome o  | recovery phase  Episode type 3 |
| Lasting up to and including five minutes.  |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Lasting more than five minutes but less than 30 minutes.   |  |                     |                    |                                |
| than 50 minutes.   |  |                     |                    |                                |
| Lasting from 30 minutes  | es to four hours.                            |                     |                    |                                |
| Lasting from 30 minute   | hours.                                       | uded, avoided, or i | restricted because |                                |
| Lasting from 30 minute  Lasting more than four  6. Please list any activi                                    | hours.                                       |                     |                    | of this                        |
| Lasting from 30 minute  Lasting more than four  6. Please list any activi  condition. Emphasis               | hours.                                       |                     |                    | of this                        |
| Lasting from 30 minute  Lasting more than four  6. Please list any activi  condition. Emphasis               | hours.                                       |                     |                    | of this                        |
| Lasting from 30 minute  Lasting more than four  6. Please list any activi  condition. Emphasis               | hours.                                       |                     |                    | of this                        |
| Lasting from 30 minute  Lasting more than four  6. Please list any activi  condition. Emphasis               | hours.                                       |                     |                    | of this                        |

4. Please describe the degree of interference with daily activities, when the condition is present

D9420 1223 Feedback: business.improvement.cbd@dva.gov.au Page 2 of 2